

Applicants: Jason D. Wengelski, et al.

Application No.: 10/672,553

Page 3 of 3

CLAIM AMENDMENTS

Please amend the pending claim set as follows:

1. (currently amended) In a system for automatically extending stabilizer legs of a vehicle to support the vehicle in a [[specific]] desired orientation that is different from the orientation of the vehicle in a parked position when the stabilizer legs are retracted, the improvement wherein the system includes controls [[for]] that can be actuated to automatically adjust the extension of the stabilizer legs to place the vehicle in the desired orientation, and, once the vehicle is in the desired orientation, can be actuated to automatically adjust the extension of the stabilizer legs to maintain the desired orientation of the vehicle as the vehicle is being elevated to a desired elevation ~~elevate the platform while maintaining the platform in the specific orientation.~~
2. (currently amended) The improvement of claim 1, wherein the [[specific]] desired orientation is a level orientation.
3. (currently amended) The improvement of claim 1, wherein the system further comprises controls for automatically lowering the platform while maintaining the platform in the [[specific]] desired orientation.
4. (currently amended) The improvement of claim 3, wherein the [[specific]] desired orientation is a level orientation of the vehicle [[platform]].

QBMKE\5797300.1